25X1A Mr. Richard Arens, House Committee on Un-American Activities, 25X1C telephoned [] to inquire what had happened in the case of the 25X1C [] responded that he did not know the specific reasons for the change in position from [] [] meet with HCUA under controlled circumstances. Mr. Arens seemed upset but remained polite and it was clearly indicated he would telephone the DCI on this since the Director had previously called him.

25X1A Mr. Arens telephoned [] again after having talked 25X1C with the DCI. He said that in talking with the Director he had failed to ask him about the possibility of our making available to the Committee 25X1A [] Mr. Arens asked if he should call the Director on this. [] indicated that it would not be necessary to call the Director on it for we could look into the matter and let him know.

25X1C Within a few minutes after the above-mentioned call from Mr. Arens, Mr. Jay Sourwine of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee called and said that he would like to put in a "bid" for [] when and if he becomes available. " Again, [] advised that we would look into the matter and be in touch with him.

6. [] talked to Jay Sourwine of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee and queried him as to the original of the alleged Castro directive which had been brought up at General Cabell's briefing of the Subcommittee. Mr. Sourwine said they did not have the original and in response to our query as to the source, he said it was supposed to have been a high church source which was inclined to consider the document authentic. The above information was passed on to the CI Staff.
